

Content Continues Below

"We saw the mess and everything down there on the street. I actually was just joking and said, 'it looks like somebody got shot down there,'" he said, shaking his head.

Actually, two people were shot. That's according to MPD, who say the victims were transported in non-critical condition.

It appears the victim was shot in front of the entrance to the parking garage at Fourth and Peabody Place, and then took off running. Down the length of the sidewalk is a blood trail. It doesn't end for nearly half a city block. Implying that the victim was shot, then took off running down Fourth Street where they eventually stopped.

Memphis Police have three suspects in custody.

Their officers didn't have to go far. There's an MPD precinct on the corner where the shooting happened.

"A lot of the locals told me to make sure I wasn't down here after dark, didn't stay too late, or consume too much alcohol down here," McDonald told us, adding he's enjoyed everything else about his trip.

I asked him if this experience would keep him from wanting to visit Memphis again.

"No. I'd be more than happy to come back," he replied.

Posted by FOX1...
25,145 Views

Memphis police have charged Glen Lucas with reckless endangerment and Justin Buckner with unlawful possession of a weapon and reckless endangerment in this investigation.

Download the FOX13 Memphis app to receive alerts from breaking news in your neighborhood.

CLICK HERE TO DOWNLOAD

LIVE

- 'Dog the Bounty Hunter's' Beth Chapman in medically induced coma
- PHOTOS: Mid-South's Most Wanted Fugitives

Trending - Most Read Stories

'Within 48 hours... he was gone': Memphis man dies from flesh-eating bacteria in Gulf waters

1st

1 dead after crews respond to 'injured party' call in Cordova, according to MFD
Shooting investigation underway at local apartment complex
4th
Single mother dead after losing control of ATV, falling from bridge in Tennessee

$699 average annual savings for drivers who switch and save.

Progressive | Sponsored

U.S. Cardiologist: It's Like a Pressure Wash for Your Insides

Gundry MD Total Restore Supplement | Sponsored