

https://www.nola.com/news/business/article_3699353d-5aa3-588a-9308-324da48c5ded.html

New Orleans named America's Dirtiest City: What others are saying

Times-Picayune Staff JUN 14, 2011 - 11:30 PM

Travel + Leisure magazine recently named New Orleans America's Dirtiest City, according to 2010 data.

Eliot

Kamenitz, The Times-Picayune archive Mounds of Mardi Gras trash is all that's left of carnival as SDT workers begin to plow on Bourbon Street Ash Wednesday in 2009.

NEIGHBORS COMMERCIAL VISA CREDIT CARD

1.5% CASH BACK + $500 BONUS CASH BACK*

New accounts earn $500 bonus cash back after $400 spent in purchases within the first 90 days of account opening. Qualification based on credit worthiness. Some restrictions may apply.

Here is what others are saying about that survey:

Philadelphia lands No. 2 spot on dirty-city list (Philadelphia Inquirer)

New York Is Dirty, But Not the Dirtiest (The Village Voice)

Travel + Leisure: Atlanta is 9th dirtiest (Atlanta Business Chronicle)

New Orleans is America's Dirtiest City (bestofneworleans.com)

America's dirtiest cities include popular tourist destinations (New York Daily News)

These Are America's Filthiest Cities (Defamer Australia)

Anchorage makes survey of dirtiest American cities (Alaska Dispatch)

NEIGHBORS COMMERCIAL VISA CREDIT CARD

1.5% CASH BACK + $500 BONUS CASH BACK*

New accounts earn $500 bonus cash back after $400 spent in purchases within the first 90 days of account opening. Qualification based on creditworthiness. Some restrictions may apply.